

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life.
He who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live.
And whoever lives and believes in me, shall never die."

"Fair"

We all mention family, we all mention friends,
when we think of our mother, the stories never end.

Growing up in Exira, basketball was her game,
taking them to state, she created her fame.

Through all her working years, she would cut, slither and comb. In the pink house called
"Ramona's", the pink house we called home.

When we think of our mother, certain thoughts come to mind,
KC Royals baseball, baseball of any kind.

We can't forget soap operas, "As the World Turns" once again. Watching them daily, again and again.

She loved her T.V., game shows at best.
But "Wheel of Fortune", was put to the test.

Monday night bowling brought her to her fame,
on a cold wintery night, she bowled a perfect game.

When we think of our mother, the landscapes she did paint, touching and re-touching, and not thinking any were too great.

A full life in Springfield, on South Nolting Lane,
the place we made memories, of which none were the same.

Mom, we know you're in Heaven, just a twirling that hair, and when folks ask how you're doing, you'll still reply "fair".

We love and miss you,

Rest in Peace.
